For the Stomach

Here's an Offer You Should Not Overlook.

Reall Dyspepsia Tablets remedy stomach troubles by supplying the one element, the absence of which in the gastric juices causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They aid the stomach to digest food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood and material necessary for overcoming natural body waste.

Carry a package of Reall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket, or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal and indigestion will not bother you.

We know what Reall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail we will refund your money. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Reall Remedies in Barre only at our store. The Reall Store, Red Cross Pharmacy, Burt H. Wells, proprietor.

A GRANITE CUTTERS' SCHOOL.

As Substitute For The Apprentice System.

The following is a letter from a prominent manufacturer:

"We note in your September issue of Granite, Marble and Bronze an article entitled 'The Need of More Good Granite Cutters.' The article seems to hit the case pretty good. We have a lot of work, but cannot get stonecutters to do it with. We have been advertising for about a month in the daily papers and cannot seem to get any. Of course, it may not be a desirable place to come to as some of the large granite cutters, but we never had any trouble before in getting men. The trouble seems to be with the union, as they have restricted the apprentices down so that they are not making stonecutters as fast as the old ones die. In our place we are restricted to two apprentices to each yard, that is, we can only make two stonecutters in three years' time.
We presume the apprentice question is about the same everywhere. Scotland, England and Italy are practically drained of dry stonecutters and we do not know where we are going to get any more. It is rather peculiar that a boy brought up in this country cannot learn his trade while man coming in from Scotland, England and Italy come into the country and be immediately received by the stonecutters' union. Do not think a trade school would be much use in teaching the trade to apprentices."

If the manufacturer had read our columns more closely he would have learned that it is not altogether the fault of the granite cutter that there is a lack of stonecutters. There is limit to the number of apprentices that can be employed by a manufacturer, but this limit has not been reached by any manufacturer in either Barre, Quincy, or any other granite manufacturing center. It is a question as to whether or not the manufacturer wishes to be troubled with an apprentice who is placed in the shed to learn or not to learn, according to his ability or desire. Why should a granite cutter take upon himself the education of an apprentice? There is nothing in it for him, and he may rather look upon it as a means which will take the bread out of his own mouth by and by, therefore, the apprentice is left, to a large extent, to his own desires, and it is our experience that the average granite shed is not an attractive place to a young man. We have gone all over this matter before and stated our reasons for thinking that a trade school was an absolute necessity in order to take care of the future granite cutter. We are not satisfied with the mere statement that one does not think a trade school would be of much use, but we want to know the reason why not. It takes us as the only solution of the granite manufacturers' difficulty, even in ordinary good times. When business is in the boom we do not dare to predict what the conditions will be, for there is a growing demand for granite work, both large and small, monuments, mausoleums, and building, and if the trade school can solve the problem of educating the young men in other lines we do not know why it would not serve the same purpose when applied to the granite business.
This is a serious matter, and should be taken up in a serious way by the Granite Manufacturers' association, and when we say a serious matter, we mean it.

SOME RIGHTS FOR NEGROES.

Mississippi Commercial High School Law Unconstitutional.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 2.—Because no provision is made for the education of negro children, the law for establishing county agricultural high schools was declared unconstitutional by the state supreme court yesterday. The law explicitly states that the schools are to be for "white youth."

California Plans for Opening of Panama

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 2.—At a meeting of the Panama-California exposition directors Monday night, it was decided to raise $1,000,000 as the nucleus of the fund that will be required for holding the exposition to celebrate the opening of the canal in 1915.

health by surprise.

It warms, soothes, strength-

VERMONT SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Report of Recent Three Days' Convention.

The Vermont Sunday School association held a very successful three days' convention in the Congregational church at Woodstock last week Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Two hundred delegates were present from places outside of Woodstock and every county of the state was represented among the delegates. The general impression among those present was that the sessions were unusually interesting and profitable, and the reports of the department superintendents and of the General Secretary Durfee showed marked progress along various lines of work.

The chief speakers from Vermont were Rev. L. H. Canfield of Woodstock, Gen.
N. G. Williams of Bellows Falls, Rev.
Thomas Hall of Island Pond, Rev. A. P.
Pratt, Ph. D. of Bellows Falls, Rev. H. A.
Durfee, D. D. of Burlington, Rev. E. M.
Watson of Rochester, Rev. E. M.
Fisher of Manchester, Rev. W. R. Davenport of Orleans and Rev. John R. Gow of Brattleboro. The speakers from abroad were the Rev. J. W. Rae of Harford, Conn., general secretary of the Sunday school association of Connecticut; Hugh Cork of Chicago, one of the secretaries of the International Sunday School association, and the Rev. J. E.
Necroscus of Boston, secretary of the Baptist Home Missionary society. Each of these three speakers was an expert, and his counsel was of great value. This was especially true in the case of Mr.
Cork, who spoke several times, and also conducted an "open parliament." Mr.
Necroscus was a living dynamo, producing fire, fun, facts, force and faith.

Among the special features of the convention were a house-to-house visitation of the village of Woodstock, the work being done under the auspices of the home department in a single hour, the seven short addresses by the Rev. E. M.
Fuller of Manchester, bringing the messages to the seven churches in Asia down to date in their application, the reports of the various department superintendents, most of which showed good progress; the presentation of a purse of money to Miss Edith M. Balch, the efficient home department secretary, to enable her to take a trip to the world's convention at Washington next May; the adoption of the report of the committee on recommendations, which provided for an exchange of schools twice a year by correspondence; the organization of an "association Sunday" by each school, the creation of a "publicity secretary," and the better correlation of the work of financing the association.

As will be seen by the following list of officers Gen. Williams is no longer president, but he was released at his own earnest request, and his place is taken by Mr. Pease, a long time and generous supporter of the association.

The list of officers elected is as follows:

President, F. S. Pease of Burlington; vice-president, N. S. Barrows of Vergennes; recording secretary, Rev. S. S. Cobb of Brandon; treasurer, F. H. Shepardson of Richmond; chairman of executive committee, H. A. Clayton of Morrisville; member for one year, Rev. J. E. Smith of Morrisville; Rev. R. O. Corbin of Williams of Bellows Falls; for two years, M. P. Perley of Enosburg Falls; for three years, W. S. Bean of Ferrisburgh; publicity secretary, Rev. W. R. Davenport of Orleans. The election of the other officials is, by the constitution, entrusted to the executive committee, which made the following choice, the executive committee being composed of superintendent of primary training, Mrs. E. E. Perry of Brattleboro; superintendent of adult Bible class department, Rev. J. A. McKim of Morrisville; superintendent of temperance work, Rev.
W. R. Davenport of Orleans; county members of the executive committee, N. C. Dyer of Salisbury, F. B. Pope of Bennington, A. F. Stone of St. Johnsbury, F. H. Shepardson of Richmond, the Rev. N. O. Rowley of Swanton, U. H.
Eason of North Hero, C. F. Smith of Morrisville, Rev. R. O. Corbin of Williams of Bellows Falls, Rev. H. H. Morrill of Randolph Center, W. H.
Gippen of Barton, the Rev. M. H.
Smith of Rutland, Dr. O. G. Stickney of Barre, F. L. Dunham of Brattleboro, Rev.
J. H. Chrysler of Woodstock, C. M. Al-rich of Springfield.

DISORDER IN BREATHITT.

One Lot of Ballots Stolen, Another Destroyed When House Was Burned.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 2.—Reports from Crockettsville and Sebastian's Branch yesterday morning were that two attempts, one successful, had been made to steal ballots near Crockett'sville predict at the month of Long's Creek.

The home of Mary Doolin, who held ballots for that precinct, was destroyed by fire and the ballots were burned with the house. At Sebastian's Branch predict the Democrats are reported to have seized the ballots yesterday morning and hidden them.

According to their political beliefs, Jackson and Breathitt county men stigmatize the firing of the Doolin house as unlawful or accidental. The most reliable report from the place, which is 22 miles away, is that Mr. Doolin was feeding the Lexington soldiers under Capt. Sams when the fire occurred. The ballots were reported destroyed and fresh ones were furnished from Jackson.

These are the ballots which an armed crowd of men threatened to take from the Jackson bank last week and which were finally given to Mary Doolin by Judge Adams for safekeeping.

Of the theft of the Sebastian Branch ballots no details are now obtainable.
Twenty-six of the Lexington company of the state militia have been placed by Circuit Judge Adams in Crockett'sville to see that the voting is not interfered with.
